Michelle Carey

Foundation welcomes new employee

The Greater Cincinnati Foundation (GCF) welcomes Michele Carey, a Hyde Park resident, to its staff. Carey, the Senior Giving Strategies Officer, was previously the annual fund coordinator of The Children's Home of Cincinnati. She serves on the board of trustees of Cincinnati Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired and is a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

Carey will work with estate planning attorneys, CPAs, financial planners, wealth managers and investment advisors to help their clients make the most of

FARE Walk for Food Allergies April 27

The Food Allergy Research and Education (FARE – previously FAAN) will be hosting the second annual walk for food allergies in downtown Cincinnati on Saturday, April 27 at International Friendship Park. Registration begins at 9 a.m. and the walk will start at 10 a.m.

The FARE mission is to ensure the safety and inclusion of individuals with food allergies, while relentlessly seeking a cure. Food allergies are potentially life threatening and affect as many as 15 million people in the U.S., including nearly 6 million children. FARE funds world-class research that advances treatment and understanding, provides evidence-based education and resources, undertakes advocacy at all levels of government, and works to increase awareness of food allergies as a serious public health issue.

Come join the fun for a two-mile, family friendly morning. Please visit the website at www.foodallergywalk.org/cincinnati to register or donate today!
